A. Choose the correct answer.

You may have heard of a (1) (sport is / sport which is) very popular in North America and Canada: lacrosse. Lacrosse, (2) (which / that) has been played for almost 1000 years, was actually in the London Olympics. Well, the Olympics (3) (which / that) were in 1908. Originally, there would be hundreds of people on a team, all of (4) (who / whom) were desperate to win glory for the tribes (5) (for which / which) they played. The earliest game involved throwing a ball (6) (which made / which they made) out of wood by means of sticks (7) (whose / that) ends were curved. Today there are different formats of the game (8) (which to play / to play) but the basic idea remains the same, (9) (which / that) is reassuring in these times of change. Lacrosse is a great game so, if you are at a loose end as to (10) (which / what) to do this weekend, why not get a few friends and try lacrosse?
