

A. Match the beginning and the end of the sentences.

1. If you're late one more time, you'll
2. The cheapest way to get to the airport is to
3. If you're buying an ice-cream, please
4. We can set off now because it's
5. In a relationship it's easy to
6. I don't want the rest of my money to
7. I have a date tonight so I'm
8. I can't promise that I'll
9. I know that all this crying is just to
10. I've been on my own for two years now and I'm still

- a) get hurt.
- b) getting used to it.
- c) get taken from me.
- d) get the bus.
- e) get me one.
- f) getting lighter out there.
- g) get me to feel sorry for you.
- h) getting my hair done this afternoon.
- i) get sacked.
- j) get it done by 5 o'clock.

B. Use the correct form of the verbs with get.

1. I don't know why this class is always so dirty. It (clean) every morning.
2. "Whose is that computer in the corner of the office?" "I don't know - it (never use) by anyone."
3. When foreign films are dubbed into English, usually a lot of the original meaning (lose) in the translation.
4. If my car (damage) by you, you will pay for the repairs.
5. Glenn Miller (kill) in an aircrash

C. Complete the dialogue with ONE word in each gap.

Mario: It sounds like you've been keeping yourself busy. I'm surprised you spend any time at all at home. By the (1) , how are the new neighbours?

Kristina: We aren't exactly friends. As a (2) of fact, I don't like them at all. We're always arguing about something silly like the noise the kids make or their dog.

Mario: At (3) you're still on speaking terms.

Kristina: Just about. They're not very reasonable, I (4) , they don't see that what they do might upset people living around them. I'm not sure I want to spend the rest of my life warring with the neighbours, to be honest.

Mario: In other (5) , you're thinking of moving?

Kristina: Well, on the (6) hand, it's a decent flat and a great location but on the (7) hand, maybe we need a change.

After (8) , we have been here nine years.

Mario: What would the kids say?

Kristina: As (9) as they're concerned, anywhere with internet access would do. On the (10) , a new place might be the best thing for everyone.

D. Choose the correct discourse makers to complete the the sentences.

Actually - As a matter of fact - as far as – besides - I mean - after all - All in all –
Obviously – at least

1. The rules are clear: mobiles are concerned, we have a zero tolerance policy.
2. You're always criticizing me.look how many times you told me I wasn't good enough to be on the team.
3. , you love her more than me. Damn!
4. I don't want to move to Paris, and we can't afford the rent.
5. he's a good student but he needs to focus more.
6. You should pay the bill....., it was you who wanted oysters.
7. What do you mean I'm not qualified? I have two bachelors degree and a masters.
8. I personally believe that animal testing is unethical and should be banned or..... Restricted
9. We can use , in fact or as matter of fact to introduce information that might be in some way surprising or unexpected.

